

ON THE PRESIDENT COUPLE OF THE CONFEDERATION

Article 10.

The President Couple of the Confederation shall be elected by the General Assembly for a three (3) year period, eligible for re-election only once.

III OF THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT COUPLE

Article No. 14.

Candidates for the presidency of the Confederation shall fulfil the following requirements:

- 14.1 Be an active member of a Christian Family Movement;
- 4.2 Have had experience as national leaders of a Christian Family Movement, or as continental or international leaders of the Confederation;
- 14.3 Express in writing their commitment to accept the presidency in case of being elected.

Article No. 15.

Only Members of the General Assembly with the right to vote can present nominations for candidates to the presidency of the Confederation. The names of the candidates nominated to the presidency of the Confederation should be circulated to the members of the General Assembly at least two months in advance.

Article No. 16.

When the election process to elect the President Couple is about to start, the President Couple of the General Assembly shall act as President of the electoral process.

Article No. 17.

Each member of the General Assembly shall cast a ballot for each vote that it has in accordance with the Constitution. Before proceeding to count the votes, the President of the electoral process shall certify that there are as many ballots as votes are present or represented in the Assembly. The President of the electoral process shall count the votes.

Article No. 18.

If after three rounds of voting no couple has been elected, on the fourth round only the two couples which have received the highest number of votes shall be presented as candidates. If after the fifth round no couple has been elected, on the sixth round the President Couple can then be elected by a simple majority of the votes.
